

PRESS RELEASE
for immediate release
March 2010

For more information contact:
Mary Kay Jezzini, Publicist
212-673-1812

Lynne Rienner Publishers Acquires Criminal Justice Press

March 9, 2010—Further enhancing its strong offerings in the fields of criminology and criminal justice, Lynne Rienner Publishers, Inc., acquires the publishing program of Criminal Justice Press.

Criminal Justice Press has been an independent presence in the publishing community since 1983, bringing to market fine titles in the fields of criminology and criminal justice.

“We are looking forward to getting to know our new authors and to continuing CJP’s reputation for publishing highly relevant and thought-provoking work,” remarked Sally Glover, marketing director at Lynne Rienner Publishers.

Among Criminal Justice Press’s bestsellers are:

- Racial Divide: Racial and Ethnic Bias in the Criminal Justice System
- Reducing Terrorism through Situational Crime Prevention
- Primer in Radical Criminology: Critical Perspectives on Crime, Power, and Identity

“We are excited about reaching an even greater segment of the market by adding these stellar titles to our list,” added Sally Glover.

This summer, Lynne Rienner Publishers will publish The Promise of Restorative Justice: New Approaches for Criminal Justice and Beyond, edited by John P. J. Dussich and Jill Schellenberg.

Lynne Rienner Publishers, celebrating 26 years of independent publishing, is known for bringing high-quality, cutting-edge books in politics and the social sciences to the general market.